Flying Classroom is a supplemental curriculum that serves Pre-K through 12th grade students across America. In 2023, Flying Classroom announced their expansion into technical training for adult education. Playing a key role in the creative team, my role consisted of managing a team, overseeing every project, and collaborating with multiple departments.

- Lead creative art direction for collaborations with global clients such as Bombardier, Snap-on, Embraer and Signature Aviation by providing innovative solutions and concepts.
- Delegated and mentored a team of 3 graphic designers to execute successful projects at hand.
- Oversaw projects from conception to completion while considering budget restrictions, scheduling and coordination of resources.
- Consulted with CEO to develop marketing goals, objectives and strategies.
